

HILARY TERM 2022

Tutorial and Other Arrangements for Undergraduates Reading Chinese

For the present teaching is in person and meetings are online. If you are required to isolate please inform Rosanna Gosi and we will contact your teachers to let them know that they need to provide hybrid teaching. There will also be situations where your teachers may have to teach online.

All Students

Collections will be held on Friday 14 January 2022. See separate notice.

A Consultative meeting for you to give feedback on the course is scheduled for Wednesday (7th week) at 12.30 noon. Please inform Professor Harrison by Friday (6th Week) if there is anything you wish to raise. Alternatively matters may be raised through the student representatives Clement Marshall and Carla Messinger.

Timetable (Lecture List) <https://intranet.orient.ox.ac.uk/index.php> but where necessary teachers may need to make changes and will be in touch with you directly.

First Year

Language Tutorials: <https://intranet.orient.ox.ac.uk/index.php> See the separate posted timetable of modern Chinese teaching for tutorial arrangements with Mr Kan, and the CTCFL website (follow links to “student diary”)

East Asia Survey Course: 8.45–9.40am. Monday to Friday (in person unless you receive further information).

History and Civilization tutorials: Tutors will be in touch to arrange tutorials. A schedule has been circulated by Dr Falato and readings are available through ORLO CHINA BA History and Civilisation tutorials HT 22 | University of Oxford \(talīs.com\).

Classical Chinese: Professor Chard will be in touch with arrangements. For weeks 1 and 2 your classes may have to be online but in the classroom. We hope that after that they will be in person.

Year-abroad meeting: a preliminary meeting will be held on Monday (5th Week) at 1pm. Everyone must attend.

Third Year

Classical Chinese II: Professor Chard will be in touch with arrangements. For weeks 1 and 2 your classes may have to be online but in the classroom. We hope that after that they will be in person.

Language Classes and Tutorials:

See the posted timetable on the CTCFL website (follow links to “student diary”).

Options: See timetable for all text/language classes and for Japanese or Korean tutorials contact your teachers in the Oriental Institute.

Modern China: Please see the schedule available on ORLO: <https://rl.talis.com/3/oxford/lists/604A857D-C414-313F-4CE3-A201F9BE8A39.html> Tutors will contact you to arrange tutorials for this term and any enquiries should be addressed to Dr Mittelstaedt.

Zhuangzi: As timetabled. Please begin preparing the first few lines.

Dissertations: Please begin to discuss your dissertation topics with potential supervisors.

Fourth Year

Classical unseens: Professor Chard will be in touch with arrangements. For weeks 1 and 2 your classes may have to be online but in the classroom. We hope that after that they will be in person.

Philosophical texts: As timetabled.

Language Classes: See the posted timetable on the CTCFL website (follow links to “student diary”) or lecture list www.orinst.ox.ac.uk.

Options: See timetable for all text/language classes and for Japanese or Korean tutorials contact your teachers in the Oriental Institute.

Modern China: Tutors will contact you to arrange tutorials for this term.

Dissertations:

Please contact your supervisor as soon as possible to report on progress made since last term. Students are reminded that tutors will not accept drafts for reading after Friday noon of 7th week.

Henrietta Harrison, Director of Undergraduate Studies, 10/01/2022